Difficulties with Americans in Brazil. A correspondent of the Fredericksburg

the Petersburg Intelligencer makes Mr. Pryor say he would vote for Gov. Wise for President, if compelled to do so. This is inaccurate. Mr. Pryor did not use the word compel, nor convey the idea, but the contrary. He said, in substance, that while he personally p eferred another candidate, he would not be a partisan for or against any aspirant if nominated, with zeal and all his ability -and this declaration he accompanied with a tribute to Gov. Wise's services in support of the Democracy.—Petersburg Press.

CROPS AFTER THE RAIN. - A gentleman from the country informs us that the recent rains have wrought a wonderful improvement in the appearance of the growing crops, especially tobacco. The rain came too late to revive high-land corn, except such as was planted late in the season; but that on low grounds will produce an average yield. Toacco is more capable of enduring drought than corn, and so it was too far gone to be benefitted by the late rain. - Rich. Enqr.

> CURIOUS Egg.-Christian Burkholder, living near Greenmount, has a curious Egg. laid by one of his Shanghai hens the other day. It is an egg within an egg, that is to say, two perfect eggs, shells and all, under the outer shell. The outer egg was about one-third larger than the common hen's egg. and the inner one was about double as large as a partridge egg. The inside egg had no BACON, Hog Round ... yolk in it, but in all other respects it was as PORK perfect, shell and all, as the other. - Rockingham Register.

The receipts from customs yesterday amounted to $93,805; total in the Subtreasury $5,337,422. The money market has undergone no change in this city. The Boston Post thus notices the market of that city: "The accumulation of New York funds last week caused some small transfers of coins to this city. On Saturday the bank aggregage was nearly five millions of dollars, a sum, to be sure, entirely inadequate, but yet a material improvement over previous holdings. In consequence of the specie increase much of the hardness f this market has disappeared, so far at least as first class borrowers are concerned. Still seven per cent, is the current outside rate for prime ker; Jane Talbot; Ormond, or the Secret Witness; paper of moderate length, and second class loans are difficult of attainment at any price. The banks in general have not yet charged much exchange for foreign paper." The European advices by the Arabia, at Halifax. to July 30th, are favorable as denoting a continuance of peace, and giving reassuring circumstan-ces. Breadstuffs continued duli, and provisions were neglected. In regard to cotton, the Liverpool markets had been active during the week, and holders had sought for an advance, though without

THE RAILROAD ACCIDENT .- On Thursday night last, the Coroner's Inquest returned the following verdict, in the cases of the two men, recently killed by the Railroad accident, near this place-"That the deceased came to their death from the falling of a Bridge on the Alexandria, Loudoun and Hampshire Railroad, which accident was caused by no fault in the construction of the Bridge, but from the cars being thrown from the track by a cow, and coming forcibly against and displacing the braces of the Bridge-whether from neglect or inability ears, the jury are unable to say."

Workmen were vesterday engaged in tearing down two old frame buildings on King. near Water street, adjoinging Wise & Co's. coal yard, on the site of which Mr. J. T. Johnston intends erecting a brick store, two stories in height, and 24 feet by 52 deep.

Considerable fighting and rioting occurred at the north end of Fairfax street, on the suburbs, on Thursday afternoon. Whiskey the cause. A crowd collected, but the belligerents were allowed a "free fight' in this place and neighborhood, yesterday. Rain was much wanted. All the wounded, by the late Railroad accident, we believe, are recovering.

Georgetown.-Hawkins, who was struck on the head with a hammer, is not likely to recover. His skull is fractured. Mr. Wm. S. Offut, of Montgomery county. Md., met with quite a serious accident while stopping at Hazell's Beall street Hotel on Wednesday night. During the night he got out of bed and not being fully awake walked out of the window of his room, supposing a shed in front of the building to be a porch be stepped upon, and losing his footing he fell to the pavement, a distance of some ten or twelve feet, breaking the outer bone of the ankle and splitting in two the bone of the heel. The injury to the heel particularly is quite a serious one.
